How to send a report to VK moderation

On VK, millions of users express their opinions in posts and comments, and post various content like photos from seaside vacations, funny animal videos or amusing life stories.

If you encounter shocking content, insults, harassment and other safety threats, you can report them to moderation. Our team processes reports around the clock. In this article, we'll talk about how moderation works and show you how to report messages, comments, photos, videos, posts, stories, user profiles and communities.

⌃ How VK moderation works

VK uses a highly effective set of measures, a hybrid moderation method. We not only respond to reports of users, social organizations and government regulatory agencies as quickly as possible, but also conduct proactive internal monitoring. Our team reviews every report thoroughly and removes content that violates VK Terms and Conditions or the law, as well as blocks communities and profiles that spread such posts. Response time does not exceed one
